

ECHELON™

Indulge in Luxuries From These Premium Producers

TOP

Photo: Chaiwala/Pirata

Pirata recently launched its newest concept, Pirata Mart, to battle the fifth wave by offering a range of its restaurant quality dishes on one platform. Nibble on cold cuts and cheese before diving into beef wellington or suckling pig. With four pick up locations and free bottles of wine this new service takes all the troubles away for your next evening in.

piratagroup.hk/piratamart

SPICEBOX ORGANICS

Photo: Spicebox Organics

Spicebox Organics supplies over a thousand USDA National Organic Program certified products as well as ready-made food in its quaint cafe/food store. Find the likes of locally grown produce, konjac noodles, superfoods and an abundance of gluten free alternatives. The retailer also stocks Taboocha, a local kombucha company that only uses organic tea leaves and fresh ingredients in its small batched brews.

spiceboxorganics.com

178 DEGREES

Photo: 178 Degrees

Every farm or fishery chosen by 178 Degrees has been carefully selected for holding similar philosophies that respect the quality and sourcing of their produce. Hoping to establish New Zealand produce within the Hong Kong industry it vouches for the smaller farms to